A SISTER'S CALL

Screening of Award Winning Documentary Film
Dealing with Family and Schizophrenia

In 1977, Call Richmond disappeared. After 20 years of exhausting search, his sister Rebecca found him homeless, alone and suffering from severe paranoid schizophrenia. Filmed over a 14-year period, A Sister's Call follows Rebecca's journey to bring her brother back from the depths of his illness, all while confronting the debilitating issues of their dark past.
